“ I remember Jeff in both grade school and high school. Though he was such a big, strong guy, he was always so nice, never a bully. When I was a freshman, and he was a sophomore, coaches lined me up across the line from Jeff. I weighed 135 pounds; Jeff was 180+ pounds of solid muscle. When he looked me in the eye across the line, he grinned and said, "Don't worry, Bud, we'll make it look okay." My condolences to all of Jeff's family because I'm sure he'll really be missed.
