“ Just wanted to share with you that I can indeed understand your grief as I too lost my wife many years ago. She was 37 years of age and we had two sons. At that time, material things meant nothing, but in time, things do start to become more normal. Your children will need you now more than ever. I hope the very best for you in the future.

“ Jenny's fighting spirit and her dedication will be greatly missed. I am a co-worker, the counselor at Lundgren, and we shared principals for the last year. She never complained and always was jumping in to cover some need that wasn't really on her job description but that needed doing. She made a difference for so many students and staff. May God be with you during these very difficult days.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I had the privilege to work with Jenny at Turner High School. Jenny showed concern and compassion for all - the staff, her students, her athletes. I think Jenny's true love was for her family and children. This is a difficult time for all; hold onto the loving memories. Jenny has touched so many lives and she will not be forgotten

“ I was deeply saddened by hearing this news. Jenny was an exceptionally kind and happy person when I knew her, just like the entire Halblieb family.

I will keep your family in my prayers.

“ Our thoughts and prayers have been very much with all of you closest to Jenny these last few days - especially with Ryan and Logan and Kinsley. Our hearts ache for you and the huge void left in your lives. We can't imagine Jenny not here with you and all of us that knew her and cared about her, but we very much can see her now enfolded in His arms and cared for eternally by our Father God. May you feel His offerings of comfort and peace as you struggle to understand and learn to accept and cope with this tremendous loss.
