“ Please accept my deepest and dearest sympathy. God is especially concerned about you during this time. Psalm 34:18 states 'Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; And those who are crushed in spirit he saves'. I am writing to you because 1 Thess. 4:13 says '..we do not want you to be ignorant concerning those who are sleeping [in death]; that you may not sorrow just as the rest do who have no hope'. The bible provides a hope for you at Acts 24:15 which states 'and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men]themselves also entertain, that there is going to be resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous'. You have the hope of seeing your beloved one again in the future. I truly believe these scriptures and they have brought me comfort. This is in harmony with the thought at Romans 15:4 which states 'For all things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort of the scriptures we might have hope'. I hope this message brings you hope and comfort also.

“ Joe and Derek,
We were so sorry to hear that JoAnne had passed away. She was such a kind person and we always enjoyed her so much. We will always remember her on the 4th of July with the water hose putting out the fireworks before they were finished going off. We are sorry we could not make it up for the service. We are coming up to visit our families this weekend. (5/20-5/22) We will give you a call and hope to see. Take care and our thoughts are with you. If you need anything please do not hesitate to ask.
Love, Pat, Brad, and Aaron Neis

“ Dear Joe and Karen and family,
My thoughts and prayers are with all of you right now and especially so since I learned of JoAnne's passing.
I can only imagine how you will miss her! I don't think there was ever a time I saw or spoke with her that she didn't have a smile or two no matter what the situation. Or a twinkle in her eyes either!
I am so sorry that I won't be able to attend the service. I would love to see you all and give you a hug. Karen how you have grown and with children of your own now! I am behind this week (my daughter graduated from high school- how time flies) and only read of her passing yesterday- too late to come up to the Monday family time. Again, all my deepest sympathy. JoAnne was a wonderful and kind mother (and wife) who loved you all so dearly. There is nothing like a Mom.
