“ There was only ONE Jon Seley. We served together at Cardiac Rehab. Jon had a knack of connecting and encouraging patients. When Jon would be absent (a rare occurrence) patients would inquire and comment on how much they enjoyed Jon’s humor. I smile at the thought of Jon and Millie reunited.

“ I volunteered with Jon at Cotton O Neil Heart Center, "Come back squad" for about 12 years. Jon was a good man, and I always enjoyed working with him. I am sorry I will not be able to attend the service, but his friendship and good humor will always have a place in my heart. Bless the family of this very nice man.
