“ Dear Broxterman Family,
I just want to extend my condolences to you. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that many of us will ever have to face in a lifetime. No doubt you're feeling an overwhelming number of emotions. In times like this, the Bible can serve as a wonderful comfort. When you have a moment, please read Revelation 21:3, 4. Here, God promises that "... death will be no more..." What a wonderful promise for the future. This promise is extended to all who truly believe in Jehovah God, and in his son, Jesus Christ. It is my sincere hope that these words will bring you comfort.

“ Dear Marie and family:
Randy and I join with so many others who knew Joe in offering our deepest sympathy on his passing.

When I think of Joe, I recall that "grin" of his.... You could tell when he was up to something. I know Mom and Dad enjoyed many a trip north for the KU/KSU games. I also recall many a trip w/my Dad to see Joe at the liquor store...That will always be Broxterman's corner! Who can forget all the Country Club good times too.

If the outpouring of sympathy on his loss is any indication, and it most certainly is, you can proudly and confidently say that his indeed was a life well-lived.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that his loss is felt by all who knew and loved him.

In Sympathy, comfort and peace to you all,

Lori Power-Harris and Randy Harris
