“ Dear Karen, Stacy and Jason, I am so sorry for your loss. Joe will be missed by all of us who knew him. I will always remember Joe as a caring, considerate, trusting, friend. Most of all I could bring him the any problem I had and he would find the time to listen and provide guidance. Joe believed in quality of service and would lead by example. He was someone who expected all of us to do our best, but if we fell short of his goals for us he showed patience and would help show the way.
Me and my family owe a lot to Joe and he will be missed. Thoughts and prayers. Rick

“ My sympathy to Karen and family. I fondly remember growing up with Joe and the activities we shared associated with St. Joseph's Church in Waverly and also with the Geier family. Fedelium animae per misericordiam Dei requiescant in pace. Eternal rest grant unto him oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

“ Dear Karen, Stacey, and Jason,
Joe was, without a doubt, one of the nicest guys we knew. He always had a smile on his face, and a laugh to share. His being gone leaves a huge void that can't be filled. Please accept our deepest sympathies. Ralph and Pam
