“ Terry [and family]

I was truly saddened upon learning about Judy's death. It only seems like yesterday that I first met her at Captain Devlin's retirement party. Those of us who knew you then truly appreciate the joy and family she brought into your life.

I hope the following words of Helen Keller will give you [and the family] comfort:

“When it seems that our sorrow is too great to be borne, let us think of the great family of the heavy-hearted into which our grief has given us entrance. And inevitably, we will feel about us their arms, their sympathy and their understanding.”

*God bless you,

“ Terry Rogers & family,
I read in the obituary page today of the passing of Judy Rogers. I just wanted to tell you how sorry I am to see her go. She will be missed not only by her family, but also by her friends and neighbors. I pray that God will comfort you in your great loss. Please accept my condolences to you and your family.
