March 18, 2009

Judy Gail Quinlan was called home by her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on March 11, 2009. Judy was a long time resident of Colorado Springs and was currently living in Las Alamos, NM. Judy's husband, Larry Quinlan, whom she married in Topeka, Kansas on November 29, 2002, was by her side with other family members when the Lord took her home. Her mother Jewell Tisdale, sister Terri Wheeler Powers and son William "Bill" Arnold, all who live in Colorado Springs, were also present. Other surviving family members include her sister Charlotte Wilson from Arkansas, step son Ryan Quinlan of Denver, brother in law Don Powers and nephew Collin Wheeler also from Colorado Springs. Judy's infectious smile, determined attitude and out-going personality (she never met a stranger) will be missed. Judy spent a good portion of her life as a missionary doing God's work around the world. Judy was also a Christian Counselor who was very involved with RTF (Restoring the Foundation). She enjoyed helping others, road trips and candle light dinners. Funeral Service was held Saturday in Colorado Springs, CO. Graveside service is 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 18, 2009 at Mount Calvary Cemetery in Newman, KS. Judy would appreciate your support of the American Cancer Society, 1445 North Union Boulevard, Ste B100, Colorado Springs, CO 80909.
