“ Dear Dick,

Quentin just called and told me of Julie's death. On behalf of Therese and I and our family we offer our sincere condolence. Due to circumstances beyond my control we will not be able to attend the funeral but you will be in our prayers. You have been so faithful in caring for Julie during these years of her illness. Her death has to bring sorrow but we know she is with God and so much happier.

I took this method to express our feelings as I don't have your home address. May God bless you and your family.
