“ Kathy was a very big part of my childhood. The Snyder's and the Robinson's used to pack up all of the kids and go to the drive in. Kathy and Mom would fry chicken, and all the fixin's and we would eat before the movie started. Tom and Kathy had a van, and we would open the back and eat, and then go and play on the swing sets. Those were the good ole days.

Kathy also shared her cinnamon roll recipe with my mom. I always think of Kathy when I am working up a tea ring to take to a new mother, or breakfast meeting.

*Love to all,
