“ Marshall & family: I was saddened to learn of your dear Katrina's passing. Please accept my condolences & deep sympathy for your loss. I worked with Katrina for a number of years and truly loved her! Her joy of living, interest in life, delight in trying new things, cheerful countenance and her devotion & love for Marshall were an inspiration to me. I often said: "When I grow up I want to be like Katrina", and: "When will I find 'my Marshall'?". Years later, I did find 'my Marshall' (namely, Bill Billen) and am still benefiting from the wisdom Katrina imparted to me on love & marriage. May God bless and keep you in his care.

“ Dear Marshall and Family,

How sad it is to learn of Katrina's death. I always think of the laughter shared during our wonderful trip to Equador. There seemed to be a sense of sunshine surrounding her and I'm sure she will be missed. My condolences to all of you.
