“ So very sorry to hear that Ken is no longer with us. In spite of his illness, he heroically attended our Class of '65's reunion last summer, and I and others are so grateful that he made that effort so we could visit with him. He was such a dear person, a pleasure to know. Deepest condolences from Jean Barnes Ommerle

“ Ken and I never met in person, but we shared a number of phone calls. During those calls he and I discussed family, military service and health issues. He always talked lovingly about his family, his desire to fight as long as possible to be with them - that's something we both experienced. He was realistic. I am honored to have had the opportunity to share our conversations. R..I.P
