“ Cassie: I am sorry to hear of your son's death. It is a sad day and days to come for you.
I hope I have the right family--didn't we live across the street from each other while in high school? At any rate, am sorry for your loss. I'd love to hear from you; use my email if you can to reply. Maureen

“ Time will ease your pain and his is now gone! Kent had a heart of gold. He was fun and would give the shirt off his back. May he rest in peace. Cody and Kaycee, having lost both my parents, I know your grief. I am here if either of you need anything. He would want you to hold on to the good memories and not be sad. Lots of love to you both!

“ This is such a sad time. Ken's passing has left a hole in the hearts and lives of many. I am lucky to have known him and called him my friend and am so very thankful for that. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. I hope happy memories and the support of loving friends ease your pain. He has left us all a legacy of friendship, kindness, and laughter to help us through. Blessings to all.
