“ Our hearts go out to you in this most difficult time. There are many things on this side of Heaven we just don't understand, and this is one of them. You've been in our thoughts and prayers since we learned of Kevin's passing. May the Lord continue His ministry of comfort in your hearts and lives. Thankfully, you do not sorrow as those who have no hope. You have our deepest sympathy.

*God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
~Psalm 46:1~*

May you know His peace in the coming days...

“ So sad to hear the news of the loss of such a great guy. I was a couple years behind Kevin in high school and I always looked up to him. I got the chance to get to know him better one summer when we worked at the REA in Horton, and I am so glad that God gave us this opportunity. Kevin had a great sense of humor which seemed to come on even more as we worked out in the heat of a hot, Kansas summer. We worked hard, we laughed a lot, and we became friends as we began to do things together outside of work. Once we went to a Bryan Adams concert at Starlight Theater and we had a great time. Kevin loved life, he loved his family and friends, and he loved his sports. Kevin touched me life as he did with so many and he will truly be missed. I pray that God brings peace and healing to Kevin's family and friends in this difficult time. I can still see your smile and hear your laugh, and I know that you would not want us to be sad. Farewell my friend, until we meet again.

“ Kevin, for many years you have been my partner in crime on the gridiron. Friday nights will never be the same.

"When we walked onto the field on Friday evenings, there was nowhere else we would rather be."

Until we meet again, keep calling a good game and remember, we were always right.
