“ Cindy, I am so sorry for your loss. When I saw the age, it was the same age as my Ron, when he passed. Kevin will be missed by so many students and friends. They asked for him again this week when I told them of a sub coming Thursday. I will remember him always in my prayers and have sent a prayer to Ron to welcome him and make him feel at home in heaven, which is where I am sure he is. My mom, dad, and best friend Mary Lou are also there to welcome him. God Bless you! If you feel a need to talk, please give me a call. Love/prayers Midge “ I've not known Kevin for long, but long enough to know how genuine/caring and fun-loving he was and to know how much he loved and cared for his family. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of loss. I'll see you again, my friend!

“ *My deepest sympathy to Kevin's family.
Kevin and I were classmates at Huron High School. May the Lord comfort each of you in this time. I know our God can grant that.
I ask that He does so for you. And I trust that at some point you will see Kevin again! HHS Class of '73*

“ It's been my experience that a loving family and friends are by far the most valuable things in this life. Based on this knowledge I can only conclude that Kevin was indeed a very wealthy man. Perhaps I'll be fortunate enough to see him again one day after my time on earth has come to an end.

“ To the whole family, my deepest condolences in this troubled time. Uncle Kevin was one of the kindest souls I have ever met or ever will! I knew him for a long time, he will surely be missed by alot friends. I will truly miss him on the golf course! We had some lengthy conversations about our girls! He was a true family man. Keep the good memories close to heart! He would want it that way! Love always, Tony

“ Aunt Jeanette and Family,

I am saddened greatly to hear of the passing of your son, my cousin, Kevin. Though I did not spend much time with Kevin, I can clearly see his broad smile and hear that deep rumbling laugh from way down deep in his belly. I enjoyed so much the visits we had together. I know he will be sincerely missed by his family and friends. Please accept my heart-felt sympathy and prayers in your time of loss.
