“ Condolences to Kitty Louise's children and grandchildren. Kitty was always so nice to me. One of my fondest memories took place when I was ten years old visiting Uncle John and Aunt Nellie's farm in Kansas. I had never been on a real horse before and Kitty saddled hers for me to ride. She and Uncle John had great fun with me when I did something wrong and caused the horse to start "crow-hopping". Kitty was a lovely person and will be missed.

“ Jane, Chuck and Rick, Your mother was very special to me. I still think of everything next door as Kitty's and want to laugh with her about the tree that never seems to show the effects of one bad storm after another. She patiently listened to my stories, told me some wonderful ones of her own, sometimes about you or her grandkids, and was a good friend. I am so very sorry for your loss.
