“ Amy and family,I was very saddened when I read about Larry's passing. I went to school with LARry--he was a year behind me--and had a few classes together. A funny,sharp guy who I always thought would someday try either theater or music again. But he had other ideas,I guess.

I'd see him(And you all)in church from time to time(yup,also a CTK parishoner)and he'd acknowledge me with a friendly glance and maybe a wave. I knew he'd been sick and he was in my prayers,as he and you all will continue to be.

“ Dear Amy,

Your loss must be so much to bear. I am also your age and have 2 children, Larry went to school with me at Hayden. I believe Larry came to serve with God in his heart, you could see it in his every word, his big smile and his great disposition in life. He was always someone with great hope to any situation and I believe his hope lives on in you and the children. My niece Brooklyn attends school with your son Shawn and her and her family send their most heartfelt sympathy. God bless you in this time of sorrow.

“ Amy, we are so sorry for your loss. I thank God for granting me the privilege of meeting Larry and allowing him to be a part of my life. No matter how early or late in the day, he could always make me laugh. Larry always made it known that you and the boys were the most important people in his life and what kept him going every day. We will always remember him as a good and caring person. We love you and are praying for you and the boys. May God bless you and keep you in His care.

“ Dear Amy Connor Sean Cameron and Family, We are so saddened by the passing of Larry. What a beautiful man who had faith for his miracle and God found the way for him to not suffer anymore. They say to measure a man by his friends not his earthly goods. Larry was rich with friends who truly loved and cared about him and his family. We will always remember him and his life will go on with his three beautiful boys and lovely wife who loved and cherished every minute they had with him. We love you all and pray for God's comfort to fill your hearts. All our love...Barry Anne Brett and Cinnamon Stark
