“ Uncle Larry was a compassionate man, who loved his wife Mary and their two sons Ricki and Randy my cousins. He was always interested in our family and made many trips to visit my parents and the Brown family. Larry had faith in God which helped him through Aunt Mary's struggles with her health. He made us all feel included and welcome. He has been a great supporter from afar for my business at Ace and sent many likes on our facebook. May Larry's spirit and love for others be shared with all of us. We will miss him.
Much love to Ricki and Randy in their time of sorrow and grieving. We will say some prayers and let you know we are thinking of both of you.
Deepest Sympathy to both of you.
