“ The last time I saw Uncle Larry and Aunt Sandy, they were cruising by the house in the beautiful convertible. They stopped and came in to visit with Dad and Mom a bit, and we all had a really nice time. Larry was one of the good guys, as dad would say, an AAGG (all around good guy) and he will be missed so much by family and friends. Rest in peace, Larry, and may all of us who love him be comforted by our memories of him and what a kind and gentle soul he was. Tell my dad "hi", he'll be glad to see you, he always thought a lot of you and Sandy.
