“ Janis:

I just heard about Larry's passing from Hadleigh. My heart breaks for you and your children. As devoted as he was to Washburn, I can imagine that he was doubly devoted to you, your children and grandchildren.

His presence will be missed by the Washburn community...but he will NEVER be forgotten.

My prayers and thoughts are with you, Janis.

“ Jan, I wanted to extend my sympathy to you and your family upon hearing of Larry's passing. I wish I could have attended the service today, but, I was assisting with another funeral as a volunteer at church. I always enjoyed Larry both at work and seeing you at the Washburn games. He was One of the good guys!

“ Larry was my supervisor for many years at the plant and I really enjoyed working with him. Larry was such a mild-mannered and pleasant fellow. I know he loved following Washburn sports, and we appreciated you two coming out to the baseball field to watch Jake, our son. Our deepest sympathies are with you. Larry & Mary Lenherr
