“ Uncle Leo and Aunt Flossie kept in contact with us after my parents divorce. That was a blessing for me, since, I was able to be a part of the Kelly family through their contact. What I remember about Uncle Leo is his "ready laugh". He was truly a humble man. Thank you for sharing him with me.

“ Dear Kelly family,

I have many and such fond memories of your dad and husband. I hope the memories you have will be the keepsake that helps you through this difficult time. I will miss seeing him at church and will miss his smiling face when we go Christmas caroling.
