“ Jerry, Tannia & Family,
We are so very sorry for your loss of your father – both of your parents, such a short time apart. I can only imagine all you have been through. I know that your father was a very special man – and because of our faith, we know that he is now at peace, in the presence of our Lord, where you will be with him again. Please know that you remain in our thoughts and prayers. Also, that we here for you if there is anything that we can do to help. May God's comfort and peace be with you. – Jacquie, Clarence & Barbara

“ You may feel that the world is spinning faster than the speed of light. God will give you comfort. I will always remember your parents. They came to our plays at Washburn, and I do not think I ever saw them without a big smile on their face. They took pride and joy in their family. Kathy, you are a shining example of the great job your parents did. Keep on living their legacy of faith and love. God speed to all.
