“ *Making sure to cover both sites to sign to express our sorrow over the loss of Lewis. What a guy he was that I never knew, in the Navy etc. I respect him as a veteran and thank him for serving his country as well as in the Guard as well. I know you loved him a lot Angie and he loved you. Hang on to those memories and thank God those memories were made over the time of your marriage. You are super strong in your faith and it I know will carry you though. You are for sure a shining example of faith and may God give you all the comfort you need in every way through every one.
