“ I feel honored to have worked along side Linda and to call her my friend. I will never forget the technical tips & tricks you so graciously shared with me but most of all, the heart to heart talks we had. Thank you for all the amazing advice you gave me while raising my boys. That my friend is something that I'll cherish forever. It's not goodbye....ill see you later!

“ My heartfelt thoughts & prayers for Bobby Sr. & the amazing Estudillo family. My beautiful beloved cousin Linda was truly salt & light on this earth, she loved God, her family & many, many friends unconditionally. She was inspirational, loved everywhere she went & made the difference in the lives of many! Her grace, courage & strength more importantly spirit to fight the good fight was remarkable, in spite of her circumstances she prevailed, a true champion of hope & warrior, victory was in her DNA. Her legacy is in the many lives she touched, empowered & changed for the better, she would want her family & loved ones to carry forward where she left off. We will always love you & the glory is yours, heaven just received our best angel, you've raised the bar high for many of us to do better, life is truly short, not based on time but what we do with the time we're given, none of us are guaranteed to be here tomorrow, love each other today! Well done, good & faithful servant! Your forever in our hearts! Love your AZ Family, Aunt Dee, Joseph & Pam Ortiz, James & Paula Thomas Fam❤️
