“ I found all but one of the photos I had of Linda at our house at 504 N. McKinley in Muncie, IN...had planned to send them to her when I learned she had passed away so I am hoping her son can see her as a young girl, so funny, kind and goodhearted, as I remember her. There were 11 in the house, Wilma "Willie" Fox was her actual roommate. I was told by one of the girl's that lived in this house all four years that 1960-61, was the only year ALL the girls got along together with no drama, cliques..it was a congenial and good fellowship all around. Wishing I had copied the photos and found her in time, but some things aren't meant to be.

Linda was my housemate at Ball State in our freshman year, have a few photos from that year and if you like, can figure out how to share. She was funny, oh so funny, loved to tease about my southern accent, a good friend, kindhearted, lively and smart. My nickname then was Bobbie, not my choice, but vote of the 10 other girls that shared the house.....my email is ktdink@gmail.com Barbara Adams Whiteside
