“ I have great memories of my cousins, Lois and Frank, and I know family can appreciate and recall the glow of our growing up together.

When I was a teenager I used to show up frequently and sometimes unexpectedly. Overnights were often and warmly appreciated. Lois definitely played the Mother Hen and welcomed the challenges that I could give her.

Sometimes we are closer to certain relatives than we are to our parents. Especially those that were influential in our upbringing. I am fortunate that during my young years I had the opportunity to know Frank and Lois.

Every time we lose a family member it is like losing a piece of yourself and unfortunately the older that we get the more the chance of the departure of more of our relatives.

My memories of Lois are close to my heart for all time. My prayers are with Frank and family during this most difficult time.

“ Lois and Frank have been great neighbors and friends. Theirs was the first home built in our neighborhood, and they set the tone. My sympathies go to all the extended family, including all the kids, young and old, who enjoyed so many family gatherings with Frank and Lois.
