“ My condolences on the loss of your Mother..... she was a sweet lady, one of the 15th Street Mothers. I wish that all could have grown up in such a neighborhood.... we had many 'Mothers'.... and they all did their best to keep us out of trouble. We loved it when Mr. Barraclough would come by in one of the fire trucks and we could be up close and personal with the equipment, always got a lesson in how to deal with a fire.

My condolences to Peggy and siblings.... I know she will be missed, but she's with Mr. Barraclough now.... bet it was a sweet reunion!

Love and prayers,

Susan Swalwell
