“ Marcia was a "bright light" in my life, and she enriched the lives of a lot of people in so many ways. I have always had a soft spot in my heart for her because she was so "real" and caring. May she rest in peace, and may God bless her family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Please accept my condolences. Marcia made being with her an interesting experience full of friendship, caring and love. Her willingness to share of herself gave others opportunities to learn and to grow toward being better people. May God bless you and care for you throughout this time of grief and recovery.
