

Margaret Burr

April 29, 1918 - June 13, 2012

Margaret Heaney Burr passed away at King City, Missouri on June 6, 2012 at the age of 94. She was born in Towner, Colorado on April 29, 1918. She was the daughter of Arthur Joseph Heaney and Anna Biggs Heaney of Emporia, Kansas and points west. She was preceded in death by her parents and her six siblings; a brother, Roland Cornell Heaney and five sisters; Rosalie Heaney Roper of Emporia, Kansas; Eleanor Heaney Rice Schwindt of the Toledo community, Chase County, Kansas; Alice Heaney White, Emporia, Kansas and Henrietta Heaney Hane of Topeka, Kansas. She is survived by a daughter, Helen Parker Dickey of Healy, Kansas and a son, Donald L. Parker of Conception, Missouri. She has six grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and four great-great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Margaret moved to Kansas City, Kansas in 1941 to work in a defense plant. She met Alan G. Burr there and they were subsequently married and settled in Roeland Park, Kansas. She was a member of the Grace and Holy Trinity Cathedral, Kansas City, Missouri for 20 years. She graduated from the University of Missouri at Kansas City in 1960 with a Bachelors Degree in Sociology. She moved to and was a social worker in Garden City, Kansas and the surrounding county. She moved to Memphis, Tennessee in 1970 and lived with her daughter Helen for 22 years as a homemaker and was involved again with social work and literacy programs. She moved back to Kansas (Topeka) in 1992 and then to Missouri in 2004. A Memorial Service will be held in the side Chapel of the Grace Episcopal Cathedral in Topeka, Kansas at 11:00

A.M. on June 13, 2012, following with a family visitation. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the charity of the donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Margaret Burr

January 28, 2023 at 12:08 PM