“ I hadn't heard from Peg and was so worried. Then I found this obituary. She was a remarkable lady. We met on their 50th wedding cruise from Turkey to Barcelona in 2001 and have kept in touch ever since. May the Lord bless Peg, Don and her family.

“ Terry, Jeff, and Dan; I have so many memories of your Mom, Dad, and you all when we lived down the street on Indian Trail. One of my craziest memories is the day your Mom knocked on our door and wanted me to cut her hair. I was sixteen and had never cut anyone’s hair! She just thought I would be able to do a good job of it and wanted me to try. So I did, and it didn’t look half bad! My thoughts and prayers are with you. I know how much you miss her.

“ I only knew Peggy for about three years! We met through a mutual friend. I really enjoyed my time I spent visiting with her. She was a world of knowledge! Very nice and caring lady. She will be dearly missed!
