“ As Byron Coats' granddaughter, I have such fond memories of Marietta growing up.... she taught me how to blow my first bubble with bubble gum and I will never forget it! She was so very kind. My deepest sympathy to her family.

“ We are so sorry to hear about Marietta. She was a very dear friend to us. We will miss getting her emails and hearing from her. She certainly taught us a lot about the craft business and how to paint. We still have some of the ceramics we painted together.

“ We always looked forward to visiting with you at our family gatherings, like going out for walks together and you pointing out the particular flowers and the varieties of colors of those flowers and plants. You will always live in our hearts and memories.

“ At times like this, we realize just how much it means to have strong family ties, great faith and caring friends. I hope that these three blessings will be your strength during this time of sadness. As you remember the love and mourn the loss, may you also celebrate Marietta's life.

*With love from Gig Harbor, Washington,

“ You always have had a spot in my heart and with your passing it will only grow. You will be remembered fondly as long as flowers bloom, fountains are flowing, candles are lit, soups are warming, clocks are chiming, Christmas trees are decorated, gifts are unwrapped, and the seasons are changing. Not only by me but all the generations of hearts you have touched as a Sister, Mother, Grandma, and Grandma GREAT.
