“ Missing our wonderful neighbor and dear friend Martha. Will no longer hear the Jeep reaving up in the garage ready to leave for daily mass, the grocery store or to visit Mary Alice. We were the recipients of her delicious chocolate chip cookies or a slice or two of blueberry pie. We will always miss her, but celebrate her her to her heavenly home where her eye sight is restored, back pain gone, and reunited with her beloved George and longtime companion Goldie. Rest In Peace dear friend.

“ My prayers are for Martha and her family. She will be missed as will the wonderful visits shared with my family over the years.
I will always remember the time she taught me to paly Bridge as a young woman. I know it was a game she loved to play and wanted me to learn and enjoy as much as she did. After a few lessons we entered a local Bridge tournament and to the surprise of all the other players she and I won the whole tournament. I was not that good but Martha just seemed able to know the right moves to make to win each hand. It was a day I will never forget!

“ My prayers and a rosary for Martha and condolences to Dan our wonderful pharmacist and all of Marthas family. I was happy to hear from Martha a few months ago after she saw a "letter" I wrote in the Cap Journal.

I have always remembered and loved the phrase she used when she testified in 1972, "human life does not flow free like the wind, but is always embobied in a human person" She made the front page of the Cap Journal that day when they wouldn't let her show slides of babies. She said' "say goodbye Tilly (nickname of the commitee chairman) because you are not coming back" He didn't.

A prolife champion has left us , but I have no doubt the babies she defended have been waiting to welcome her. Pat Goodson “ Mary and family, my sympathy for the loss of your Mom. I am sure my Grandma (Catherine Burghart who lived down the street on Arnold) was so delighted to see her again and welcomed her with open arms. Your Mother was a lovely and caring lady. I hope you all find peace soon.

“ One of my fondest memories of Aunt Martha is my earliest. She took my sister and I on a trip to the Capitol around 1956. Your mom made us feel so special and "grown up". As an adult I enjoyed our conversations around her dining table, letters and phone calls. She was intelligent, insightful and so proud of her family. Anna, Susan, George, Mary and Jane may you find peace and joy in your memories and strength in one another and your families.
