“ We have so many fond memories of Marty - through baseball, football...wiffle ball in our front yard...throwing football over the roof of our house ... paying JD to mow your lawn. He was one of the good ones with a smile for everyone. Travis & Mart were like 2 peas in a pod. You did good, Lynn & Ron. God bless you & help you thru this time of need.

Deepest sympathy from the Hartter's. Know you are in our thoughts and prayers. Although I lost touch with "Goose" after college, we had some great times in Manhattan and our trips to Chicago with the gang at the end of the school year.
