“ We would like to send our condolences to the Robertson Family at this very sad time. There are no words that can take away the pain of losing a loved one. There are the old cliches of "He is in a better place", "He suffers no more", etc. While we all know that these are true sayings, it still does not alleviate our sadness and grief. The only thing that can do this is the love and bonding of the surviving family members. Each can share their own special strength with the others and each will help the other get through this very sad time. Marvin will be missed by all. Taking care of yourselves during this time will, in itself, be a tribute to Marvin. It will show that he has instilled good values in his children and that he has given his wife, Dorothy, a part of his courage and all of the love and strength that she will need to get through this time. If ever there is a need to reach out to someone for help of any kind or just to talk to a good listener, please give us a call.

“ Just a brief note to let you know how much I appreciated knowing Marvin. We served on the board together at KMCA. I sincerely appreciated Marvin's words of encouragement and his thoughtful advice. He was a cheerful straight arrow who help guide the KMCA into the great organization it is today. He was an excellent mentor. Dorothy and Jeff, my thoughts and prayers are with you. Thanks for sharing Marvin with us.

“ To the entire Robertson Family,
I want to tell you that I am sorry for your loss.
Unfortunately, I will be unable to attend the services due to a prior commitment but want you to know that my thoughts & prayers are with you.
I want you to know that it was a priveledge to work for JMJ and get to know the Robertson family. Take care as I am thinking about you.

“ My condolences go out to Marvin and his family. I've known and have been doing business with Marvin and Jeff for many years and over these years Marvin and Jeff have been nothing but the best for myself and company. My thoughts and prayers are with the Robertson Family.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to Dorothy and family.

*Love keeps on keeping on; it trusts in God in every situation and expects God to act in all circumstances. Love goes on forever.
Nothing can destroy love. Nothing can happen that can break love's spirit; in fact it is the one thing that still stands when all else has fallen.*

“ We are very saddened by the passing of my friend Dorothy Robertson's husband. Unfortunately we didn't get to know him but we do know that he loved his family dearly. We also wish for Dorothy to gain strength at this time through her faith and family.

Much love,

“ Dearest Dorothy, Marcia, Jeff and Julia,

Our sadness at this time is lessened through remembering the many joyful and enriching occasions we were together, at the TRAIN, your home, our home, and special events.

We will remember Marvin for many things, but to us the very special times were when the four of us were laughing, telling railroad stories, enjoying a meal at Murphy's. We shall continue this great adventure of life strengthened by those with whom we share a unique bond of friendship. Ours was the very best.
