“I got to meet Agnes when I was in the 6th grade when she came to Denver with my cousin Linda Jo Kreger. I got to ride and her little red Camaro on Wednesdays to church. I thought she was the most awesome young woman I had ever met in my life. My family was strictly country and western music people we weren't allowed to listen to anything rock and roll etc. But that little tiny red car we used to sing really loud to The Beatles or whoever else came on! This day when I think of the Beatles I automatically think of Agnes. I didn't realize we had lost her until I came across her picture yes the Agnes I knew, young beautiful Agnes, when I saw observing my aunts obituary. Sweet beautiful Agnes rest in peace I love you dearly for so many many years may God bless you sweet family too.
