“ *I remember Mary Ann from our earliest school days in San Saba. She was champion to anyone with a need even from the earliest days - always caring and kind to all, fun loving and a joy to be around. Most of all I remember Mary Ann's beautiful million dollar smile. We managed to keep up with each other over the years even with the distance, and it was very evident that Mary Ann's family was her number one priority. Our world has lost a beautiful loving person and she will be missed by all who loved her. Prayers for Dean and all her family. God be with you
