“ There was no one who was as beloved as our MaryAnn at KPERS. I enjoyed her quick wit and friendship for many, many years and the world is a little less fun without MaryAnn in it. May her memory be a blessing to us all.

“ She was cheerful and ornery- an excellent co-worker to have. She was a taste tester for any new recipes I tried. Although she preferred chocolate; she would try my other recipes too. She never gave a negative review even on recipes I considered a failure. Most of our conversations involved pets or fashion. She would tell me stories about her Schnauzers and found my stray cat stories hilarious. She always looked adorable and encouraged any fashion whim I had. I will miss her and her laugh. Jamie Rose
