“ I met Mary and Lyle in the lunchroom at MPH M School. They would come serve lunch to the school children and see their grandsons. I had the pleasure of teaching Chris and Jared, so I had the pleasure of getting to know their grandparents. They were wonderful people and will be greatly missed. I saw Mary not too long ago at Maximus Wood Valley. She looked great, and I did not know she had become ill. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Hopefully fond memories will bring you some comfort.

“ I met Mrs Giersch when Ron hired me to help open The Coach Store in Kansas City.

She used to come to Kansas City to visit. Mrs Giersch had a great sense off fashion and was a true style maven. She had a great sense of humor, a vast knowlnowledge of politics, and lived a very vital lifestyle. She was devoted to her grandchildren and KU basketball, taking many trips to follow the team. The Giersch's included me in many holiday dinners and prided herself on her cooking as well as her baking.

Mary Lou Giersch has left a void that cannot be filled. Rest in Peace.

My heart goes out to all the family.
