“ Mary Ann was such a lovely person. When my parents became ill and were not able to stay at home any longer, Mary Ann was a marvelous help. I always enjoyed visiting with her and attending her sales. Kathy Edsall

Please accept my most sincere condolences and sympathy over the loss of your wife and mother, Mary Ann. I recall warmly sitting around your RSSI exhibit, and hearing her laugh as we made our silly jokes. And although I would see her so infrequently, she will be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your families.

“ Please accept my condolences on the passing of Marry Ann.

During my early days in the railroad business, she and Bill were my away Mother and Father, always looking out for me at the various meeting involving the suppliers and customers. Her friendly advise and concern for me continued through out the 30 some years of our association.

I will miss her and know that you will also. Let me know if I can assist you in any way.
