“ We were friends of Darrel and Mary Lee for many years. Four couples had a card club and met once a month and had so many good times. We camped at Lake Perry and the Hermans would join us for cookouts. We hadn't seen Mary Lee for a number of years as we became Winter Texans and then full time Texans but I know she will be missed.

“ *Our thoughts & prayers are with you all. Your Mom was a wonderful person in many ways. I will always remember girl scouts, playing at your house, slumber parties, & B-day parties etc... There are so many memories growing up with your family & mine, great neighborhood back then...
God Bless each of you, peace be with you always. Love, Gayle*
