Mary graduated from Damar High School and attended Marymount College.

As an Army wife, Mary lived on the European Continent twice, and several other duty stations in the United States. Mary was an incredible mother to eight children and served as room mother for many years as well as coordinating funeral dinners for their home parish, Most Pure Heart of Mary Catholic Church. member of a local supper club. Mary was also proud of her service as a lay Communion Minister and provided Communion for home bound parishioners.

Mary enjoyed many activities in retirement especially traveling with her husband.
