“ Teresa, Marty and Family: So very sorry to learn of Mary's passing. She was a Wonderful person and friend to my Mother, Dorothy Foster. Mom and Mary had a very sisterly relationship. They had so much in common. I will never forget how your Mother kept my 4 younger siblings one summer so my parents and the 4 older siblings could take a much needed vacation to Texas for a week. I think of that in todays world and time and think what a saint would do that for another mother just to have some vacation time??? Of course, Mary would! Guess they are visiting about that and "catching up" right now! Bless her soul!

“ Mary was always a delightful woman to talk to. She was a very dear friend of my mother Mary Rardin. I will miss her terribly. I know right now she is with my mother, renewing her friendship. I have missed her in church on Saturday's and I know she will be with us at the 4pm church service every Saturday at Most Pure Heart of Mary Church.
