“ Aunt Mary Anne was my first room-mate. When I was 5 years old my parents and my brother Duane went to live with Grandpa and Grandma Renyer while waiting to move to our new home. Mary Anne was still living with her parents at that time and I got to share her bedroom. She teased me a lot and I thrived on it. I was thrilled when she asked me to be the flower girl at her wedding. She has always been an inspiration to me.

“ In remembering Aunt Mary Anne, I am reminded of a time when Sr. Donna Jean and I visited her on one of my trips back home. She greeted us with a smile on her face and her rosary in hand -- a beautiful and gentle woman of great faith. Rest in peace, Aunt Mary Anne, and comfort and peace to you, dear cousins and your families.

“ So many memories of my fun aunt. Wish I could celebrate her life with all! 300 miles is too far to drive alone. I will have a mass celebration in my parish where I can be there on my knees. I will remember her till my life is over ! Just 10 years behind my favorite aunt

“ I will never forget Grandma when you showed Kaylee how to plant a garden. I know her and I were horrible about pulling those weeds !! Looking back I appreciate SO much of what you were showing us in that garden. You were teaching us how to cultivate our broken relationship. Kaylee and I are SO good Grandma ! Thank you so very much for that love ❤️
