“ My favorite memories of Aunt Marcella are from when I would stay at her house in Great Bend whenever we visited the farm. She and Uncle Mitch were so fun and had lots of kinds to be around. And the strongest memory - her hair was ALWAYS done. She will be terribly missed. Prayers to all the family. Love, Kay

“ Living on 23rd street in Great Bend was quite a great place to grow up! Marcella was one of those neighborhood mothers that was always kind and willing to lend a helping hand. She had a wonderful smile! To Jay, Joe and John and the entire Weide family....my heart goes out to you all in losing your mom! God Bless you all!
