“ My life was shaped in a profound way by my friendship with Matt and I'm completely heartbroken by his loss. Matt had the biggest heart and I loved him like a brother. I will never forget my friend and not a day will go by where I won't think of his big goofy laugh. I love you buddy. Rest in peace Matt.

“ I Remeber sitting in the back yard under a tree reading books and eating suckers when we were kids it seems not to long ago. How the years past so fast. But one day we will meet again. Please look after us until then.

“ I think the hardest part of losing someone, isn't having to say goodbye, but rather learning to live without them. Always trying to fill the void, the emptiness that's left inside your heart when they go. May the Lord give your family strength in the days ahead. I know this has been extremely difficult and so unfair! Cherish the memories, they can never be taken from you. If there is anything I can do, I'm a phone call away. Deb Lindsay

“ The last few days have been the hardest days of my life. I wake everyday hoping this is just a bad dream and that I will see your face. I love you and I miss so much everyday. Things will never be the same without you son. Watch over us and save me a seat right beside you for when I'm with you again. I love you. Mom

“ Matt, you will always be loved and missed more than you know. Taken from us at such an early age is not fair, but it is Gods plan and he needed you with him. We never know the reason or why, but there is a purpose to HIS plan and someday we will see you again. Love you and miss you. Grandma Janet
