“ Carol & Family, For many years over, Mike has been a true friend, confidant, mentor, and several times a fellow student at St Benedict's in Atchison. The many times comuting to and back for classes we took and shared. At times I think Mike was the reason for my "A"s. He was such an inspiration!! These qualities of this man was not only a sharing with me. Whoever he was in contact, there was inspiration. In Holy Scripture we learn how God so loved us that He gave his only Son In Sacrifice. Mike too, Loved God so much that he sacrificed his life of knowledge and love for all he befriended. I too loved the man and thank God for the experiences I have been privileged to know. I pray for you to have the strength to accept his loss, and whatever God decrees in your lives. Don't cry, Mike wants you happy, because God now has Blest him with His Love and Happiness, Peace and Rest is now his experience. Hanni also expresses her condolences, and remembers the many years and hours of Bible study with Mike's leadership, love and peace for you. Love, Vic & Hanni Milazzo

Dear Glozbach family, I'm very sorry for your loss. As a minister the comforting words in the scriptures were some that he shared with many at times like this. May the family be comforted now by the words at 1thessalonian 5:14.

“ Carol, when my Carole Rae died the 6th of September of this year Mike was one of the first to reach out to me to express his sympathy at my loss. He and I often spoke about our faith and beliefs related to the death of a spouse, especially the blessings that spouses can share with each other when they have the time to walk together towards the end of life. I recall the many times that Carole and I shared during her illness and cherish the many memories that we created as we prepared for her death. I know that you and Mike walked along a similar path to what Carole and I did. It doesn't make losing either of them any easier for us; but at least I know that Mike and I agreed that it was necessary for both of us to give and receive the blessing of knowing that nothing was going to be left unsaid between the ones that we loved the most.

My prayers for you and the family will continue to be sent forward towards heaven.
