“ Morris and Rodnee were my parents' best friends. Whenever we were in Topeka we would be welcomed to their house for BLTs made with homegrown tomatoes. We'd tour the "Jayhawk Museum" they had in the basement with many wonderful KU items. The Guild Girls thank the Carrs for years of friendship. And we know our parents and Rodnee and Morris are watching March Madness together in Heaven.

“ Morris was always happy to receive the Eucharist on Sundays. He always had a kind word and a smile. Of course he enjoyed watching the Jayhawks and cheering them on.

I will miss him and his smile. May he rest in peace.

“ Sorry to read of Mr. Carr's passing. As a kid I remember sleepovers with Dana and waking up to the best cinnamon rolls. My thoughts are with the family at this difficult time.
