“ I'll always remember Nikki as one of my best friends. I feel lucky that I got to grow up with her. She was always so much fun and had a zest for life. I remember when we were around 8 years old, she did a dive off of the high dive at gage pool. I don't know anyone else who was brave enough to pull that off. She was fearless and selfless and a friend to all. I'll miss you dearly, Nikki. Fly high with the angels. Love, Whitney W.

I didn't know Nicole personally, but met her when I started going to the dentist office where she worked several years ago. Her smile and personality were infectious. I looked forward to our chats whenever I had an appointment. I had an appointment today and was so sorry to find out about her death. Just wanted to share how much she touched complete stranger's lives. God made a special person when he created Nicole. God's peace be with you. Candace

“ Dearest Cassie and Greg and your family,
This crushing overwhelming sadness that now prevails, must truly exemplify what your dear sister, dear daughter had felt. I am so sorry that this is what she chose. So excruciatingly abrupt. My hope, my prayers, each will find their way, out of this incredible darkness. A candle lit...Linda Feldman

“ Jeremy, I am so sorry for you for the loss of Nicole. My heart hurts when I think about not seeing her anymore at Southwind, and for the pain I can't imagine you must be going through. Our many "hi's" through you back and forth were fun, and I will miss them. I'll never forget learning of our connection to you. She had a picture of you behind her station at the old building, and I asked her why she had a picture of you on her wall? She said, "That's my husband!!!" Such a small world. She was a light in my life, extinguished before its time. May God be with you as you go about your life, knowing there's a beautiful angel watching over you, who loves you dearly. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Cat, words are just vehicles trying to help us share our thoughts and feelings. No one can really know what it's like to lose a child until it happens to them. This beautiful girl with a beautiful soul had her own way of dealing with things. We may never know the "why" only the fact that she will be missed by many. She was so darn sweet and so sincere that it makes it hard to understand. The only comforting thought is the fact that her Daddy was there to welcome her to heaven. People will tell you that time heals all wounds. Time only lets you find a way to deal with the loss. The wounds will remain. My heart goes out to you and yours. I've been trying to understand this ever since Gina called and I have gotten nowhere. I know the pain you're in and pray that God will help you find a way to live without her. Take comfort in the fact that she really loved her Mommy.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Nicole's passing. Words cannot truly express our surprise and sorrow. I only knew her through her work but knew instantly her heart to be true. Not many people in this world can touch others as having met her did me. Our interactions were brief and few in number, but I say in all sincerity, Nicole will be missed by my husband and myself. She exuded sheer happiness and was such a ray of sunshine! Our days will always be brighter when we think of her. Sweet, sweet lady.
