“ Laura, I am praying for peace and comfort for you and your family. At times like these words are hard to come by. But this I do know, cast your cares upon the Lord, because He cares for you. Tears come in the night, but joy comes in the morning. The Lord will hide you beneath His almighty wing until the pain of your sorrow has passed. Cherish the memories that you have of your beloved son, as they were created for such a time as this. Cindi

“ Love you all. Just going over conversations in my head with you, with him. They brought a smile to my face then and now. So thankful we had the opportunity to know him. This world just couldn’t hold him. He had a brave and adventurous soul. I always admired that about him. He will certainly not be forgotten.

“ Laura, Ken and Trace, I am so sorry and my heart aches for you. My deepest regret is that I didn't spend more time with all of you, including Noah, so I could see the person he grew to be! What a light and special energy he had while he spent his time here. My thoughts and prayers are with you! I am blessed to know all of you, and I love you dearly!

“ Our hearts are broken 💔 sending our love and condolences to Noah's family. Heaven is shining bright. Will cherish the time we got to spend with Noah auburn elementary days, overnights, remember Wyatt and Noah Cat pants ... everyone thought they were brothers, lots of fishing and creative fun.. like rolling in the tire down our hill and sledding at Menards to choir singing to Blue thunder football .. Noah had a gift of bringing life and adventure to our lives. We will always cherish our time with Noah here on Earth. Love you Noah and love and prayers for your mom, dad, brother and family.
