“ PLEASE POST WITH THE DELIVERY OF THE PLANT/FLOWERS FROM the Class of 79.

*Don't think of him as gone away – his journey's just begun:
Life holds so many facets – this earth is only one.*

*Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.*

*Think how he must be wishing that you could know, today,
How nothing but your sadness can really pass away.*

*And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched....
For nothing loved is ever lost – and he was loved so much. Ellen Brenneman*

We are celebrating the time we had with Norman remembering the great times and memories. With sincere sympathy! The class of 79

“ Dear Sonya, Jordan, Justin, Jenna, and Jessa,

We are so very sorry for your tragic loss. It is hard to believe. The picture of Norman in the paper is just how we remembered him...that ready smile of his. He did have such a wry sense of humor and was such a nice guy. He was a guy everyone could count on. Please accept our deepest sympathy. You all are surely on our minds.

“ Sonya and family, I'm so shocked and saddened with the news of Norm. There are so many memories I have from growing up with him and in our younger years. He was always a good friend and although I hadn't seen much of him the last few years, I'll always remember the times we had together.
